Hi All,

Please find attached a design concept for A Village Affair Date Night. The other style was getting a little stale and with the new concept of Date Night, it seemed like a good time to freshen up the look and feel of A Village Affaire.

If someone could remind me of the date and time, that would be great. I can't find my notes on that. Also, I can add in the business names once they are sent over. Until then, there is just placeholder text in the "Participating Businesses" area.

Please note that I do not have permission to use the images in the background, so we will want to reach out to the businesses for permission to use their photos. Ideally, these photos correlate to some of the businesses participating in date night.

If this was announced at the Mixer this morning, it would be great to capitalize on that and send a save the date out this week or early next week.

Please let me know how you would like to proceed.

Thanks.
Christina
